

I am concerned for the future of K-LOVE Christian Music station. It is one of the few music stations in the OKC area for Christian music. It would be a tragedy if we could no longer hear encouraging music. This is a great service and choice for the community.